CAPITALIZATION:

1. todd reported to his world religion class, "the feast of sacrifice is celebrated in the islamic faith."

PUNCTUATION:
>   In punctuating lists, do not use a colon if the list begins with a preposition.
>>   Ex.—   The committee will consist of a teacher, the vice-principal, four students, and two parents.

2. The group will participate in team building activities softball balloon toss and tug of war

PARTS OF SPEECH: VERBS
>   Catenative verbs are a type of verb placed before an infinitive that is stated or implied.
>>   Ex.—   The train appears (to be) moving.
>>   Cool water will help (to) ease the pain.
>   Some catenative verbs can join a verb to a present participle.
>>   Ex.—   He began talking.
>   These can be used as catenative verbs: to appear, to begin, to come, to expect, to fail, to get, to go, to happen, to help, to manage, to seem, to stop
>   Sometimes, a catenative verb will have a direct object.
>>   Ex.—   I managed to splice two wires together.

   Write a sentence using a catenative verb.

3. _____

PARTS OF SPEECH: PRONOUNS
>   Use I, he, she, they, we, or who as a subject or a predicate nominative. (You and it may also be used.)
>>   Ex.—   On Saturday, they will hike.   (subject)
>>   The judge is she who just entered.   (predicate nominative)   Proof: She is the judge.

   Write an appropriate pronoun.

4. The first teenagers to finish the race were _____.

BEYOND EASY GRAMMAR: ETYMOLOGY

Nouns ~ Number:

a) Nouns ending in y preceded by a consonant change y to i and add es.   fly - flies

b) Nouns ending in y preceded by a vowel add s.   relay - relays

c) Some nouns ending in f or fe change endings to ve and add s.   leaf - leaves   wife - wives

d) Some nouns ending in f or fe form the plural regularly by adding s.   gulf - gulfs

e) Nouns ending in o preceded by a consonant usually add es.   potato - potatoes

f) Nouns ending in o preceded by a vowel usually add s.   folio - folios

g) Some nouns are highly irregular.   child - children   foot - feet woman - women   goose - geese