

DAY 156

CAPITALIZATION:

1. does all of the lower klamath lake or klamath national wildlife refuge lie within oregon?

PUNCTUATION:

Commas are needed for nonessential clauses (nonrestrictive clauses). These provide additional information and are not important to the meaning of the sentence.

- Ex.— The officer who testified had been part of the task force in question. (essential)
The officer, who volunteers at his church, arrived first at the accident. (nonessential)

Place an X if the sentence contains a nonessential clause. Add needed commas.

2. a. ____ The woman who called the police was the burglar's mother.
b. ____ Her sister who lives in Alabama is an investment banker.
c. ____ The flowers which were delivered in the afternoon were for her birthday.

PARTS OF SPEECH: NOUNS

A direct object receives the action of the verb.

A noun can indirectly receive action; to or for can be placed mentally before an indirect object.

- for IO DO
Ex.— The child made / her mommy a noodle necklace.

Underline the subject once and the verb/verb phrase twice. Label the direct object – DO and the indirect object – IO.

3. The president of marketing showed the employees new pamphlets.

PARTS OF SPEECH: PRONOUNS

Nominative pronouns serve as a subject or a predicate nominative. Nominative pronouns are I, he, she, we, they, who, it, and you.

Objective pronouns serve as objects of a preposition, direct objects, or indirect objects. Objective pronouns are me, him, her, us, them, whom, it, and you.

Circle the correct pronoun.
